

REGULATION FOR DOGS

Art. 1 – CHECK IN

All the dogs must be declared at the moment of the reservation and pointed out during the check-in. Dogs are allowed only if accompanied by the mandatory health card that certifies anti-rabies, chip or tattoo and insurance provided. They must be equipped with the European passport, which fulfils the requirements of EU Regulation 576/2013 and EU Regulation 06/2013.

Art. 2 – ACCOMODATION

Dogs are allowed to stay on every pitch and inside some specific accommodations.

Art. 3 – SAFETY AND RULES OF ITALIAN LAW

Dogs can be left free in their specific area. In any other area of the campsite, they must be kept on a leash with a maximum length of 1.5 m, as required by Italian law. In addition, they must be equipped with a pesticide device, in addition to the muzzle to be used when needed or at the request of the Campsite Management.

Dogs are also allowed in the pool bar, as long as they use the special service entrance next to the tennis court.

Art. 4 – ACCESS

Dogs are allowed to enter in all the shared areas of the campsite, with the exception of the swimming pools and toilets. It's possible to wash the dog in the designed area, inside the toilets near the football pitch.

Art. 5 – DOGS AREA

Dogs must be accompanied in the designed area for their wastes. Each owner is obliged to remove the wastes immediately, using the special bags. Around the Campsite you can easily find dispensers of biodegradable bags for dogs' wastes.

Art. 6 – RULES OF COHABITATION IN THE CAMPSITE

Dogs must not disturb the other guests, nor invade their pitches or accommodations. Noisy dogs, which growl, bark or might be considered dangerous by the management, will not be allowed to stay in the campsite.

Art. 7 – HYGIENE

The owners must ensure the utmost respect for health and hygiene rules (such as waste collection, use of pesticides during the summer season, etc.) during the stay of the animal in the Campsite.

Art. 8 – RESPONSABILITIES

Any damage caused by the animal inside the structures or in the common areas, will be at the expense of the owner.

The management reserves the right to immediately remove guests of the campsite who violate these rules. In addition, any conduct of maltreatment against dogs will be reported to the competent authorities.
